

IN ON THE PARK

tapas

EATING HOUSE & BAR

The Spanish word "tapa" means cover. It originates from the old custom of placing bread over the top of a glass of wine or beer to keep out creepy-crawlies. Over time, Innkeepers started adding ham, seafood or cheese to the bread to create a tasty snack.

Today, tapas are a collection of tempting small dishes to mix and match. Choose your favourites or selection to share...

Smoked ham and mushroom croquettes...	£3.95
Chicken skewers marinated in saffron and cumin with garlic mayonnaise...	£4.95
(V) Olive roasted baby potatoes coated in chilli and garlic, served with warm crusty bread...	£3.95
Sizzling king prawns with chilli and garlic, served with warm crusty bread...	£6.95
Spicy Spanish sausage and onions fried with Rioja red wine with traditional bread...	£5.25
Crispy fried calamari with smoked paprika dip.	£4.95
Whole baked Camembert (for up to 4 people) with crusty bread and cranberries...	£9.95
Marinated chilli beef skewers...	£5.95
(V) Button mushroom Provencal...	£4.25

"an easy, relaxed atmosphere"